ONLINE PROGRAM READINESS ASSESSMENT (OPRA)

Edge's Online Program Readiness Assessment (OPRA) is a results-driven five-step methodology designed to identify strengths and weaknesses, provide a gap analysis of your institution's online learning readiness, and deliver a recommended course of action for online campus development. This includes an in-depth review of the online student lifecycle, business process readiness, instructional design and technology strategy, and will be detailed in a final summative report.

OPRA IN ACTION:

- Project Outline & Data Collection
- Data Review & Assessment Kickoff
- Campus Stakeholder Engagement & Feedback
- "First Look" at Assessment Findings
- Strategic Planning Recommendations

Edge's Online Program Readiness Assessment will provide your institution's roadmap to online learning success.
